OUR STORY

Craving the world's most irresistible cookie dough?

Welcome to Doughlicious! From whipping up treats in her kitchen to becoming London's cookie queen, Kathryn Bricken turned her American baking magic into a sweet success story. Her legendary homemade cookies, crafted with clean, premium ingredients and free from artificial nasties, sparked such a frenzy among friends—who begged for her secret dough to bake at home—that she knew she had to share her creation with the world. Combining the finest ethically sourced ingredients with her entrepreneurial spirit, this dough-obsessed mum launched Doughlicious The London Dough Co in 2017, transforming her passion for bringing people together through wholesome, indulgent treats into a delicious reality.
